Rumor That Goremykin Had Been Succeeded Denied

BATTLE IN A BANK

Band of Anarchists Attack a Warsaw Institution—Two Killed, Eight Hurt—Concession of the Douma.

St. Petersburg, May 26.—It was rumored in the lobbies of parliament yesterday afternoon that Premier Goremykin had resigned and had been succeeded by M. Shipoff of Moscow. This report, however, was later characterized as "premature," and it was stated that M. Goremykin was ready to make the declaration of the government's policy today in the lower house of parliament. It was also reported that Prince Uru-soff, the former assistant of the ministry of the interior, who resigned when the old Council of the Empire declined to accept his project to remove the race and religious limitations from the schools and who since has been elected to the lower house of parliament as a Constitutional Democrat from Kaluga, had been appointed minister of the interior. Upon his return to St. Petersburg yesterday afternoon M. Goremykin hurriedly called an extraordinary session of the cabinet.

It is rumored that the emperor has decided to make a bold bid for the support of the peasants by donating to them practically all the lands belonging to him personally.

BATTLE IN BANK.

Band of Anarchists Attack a Warsaw Institution.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, May 26.—A brief but bloody battle took place here at 12:30 yesterday afternoon at the Industrial Savings Bank, which was attacked by a band of Anarchists.

Ten latter, with revolvers in their hands, ordered the clerks and customers present to hold up their hands. The chief clerk promptly drew a revolver and fired at the intruders. This was the signal for a brisk fusillade during which two of the customers were killed, and two customers, five clerks and one of the Anarchists were wounded. The Anarchists then escaped carrying off their wounded.

ALCOHOL OR FAT?

Which Do You Take for Making Flesh? What the System Requires, and How to Supply That Demand.

Much has been written lately against the indiscriminate taking of patent medicines. The chief champions of the people in protecting them against themselves are the Ladies' Home Journal and Collier's Weekly. Both of these publications represent the highest type of magazines and they are doing excellent work in warning the public of the dangers lurking behind these so-called remedies.

It has been pointed out again and again that most of these "medicines" contain large quantities of alcohol. Now let me ask every reader of this paper whether he or she believes that dosing the system with alcohol will produce sound healthy flesh? I venture to say that none will so affirm.

Alcohol produces a temporary stimulation but its continued use destroys the tissues—eats them up, so to speak. How anyone can imagine that it will build up the system and produce a sound, healthy condition is beyond comprehension.

It takes fat and fat-producing qualities to make flesh—the sound, healthy kind. Something that invigorates and infuses new life. Such an article is Mager's (Malt) Emulsion, a preparation of pure cod liver oil, syrupy, diastatic non-alcoholic malt and hypophosphites of lime and soda. That is all there is in it. There is not even a grain of sugar, such as some manufacturers put in their emulsions. It might be described as an elixir of life, so great is its power to make weak people strong, sound and healthy.

If you wish to protect yourself against the trials of the winter season, take Mager's (Malt) Emulsion. It is a preventive of colds, coughs, bronchitis and pneumonia. It protects you against these because it is a fat and food. Remember nothing else enters into it.

CLOSE GAME WAS LOST

Goddard Defeated by Burlington High School

IN INTERESTING GAME

Visitors Touched Up Spence in Lively Manner and Booth Went in, Stopping the Hitting—Score aWs 5 to 4.

In a close and interesting game of base ball yesterday afternoon at Goddard campus, Burlington high school defeated the home team by the score of five to four. The result was in doubt up to the last moment. Goddard was at the bat last but Burlington managed to hold them down without the tally needed to tie the score.

Burlington started the scoring in the first inning. Keislick, the first man at the bat, batted a little one to Blake, who threw wild to first. Keislick kept on to third and Booth threw wild to catch him there, so he did the only thing anyone could do under the circumstances—he simply walked home, although his score counted just as much as if he had slid half way. In the last of the third Booth singled, stole second and third and came home on a sacrifice hit.

Vivian got a single in the fourth and then "Red" Berry came up to bat with blood in his eye. The second ball thrown to him changed its course suddenly and started off on a tangent toward the Catholic church. It didn't go clear to the church, but it went far enough so that both Vivian and Berry came home. In the sixth the Burlington men began to touch Spence up for a hit now and then, the first good one being Andrew's two-bagger over the left-field fence. There was nobody on the bases, however, and the next man up struck out, making three out, so the hit didn't do any good except to put Spence a little up in the air. In the last of the sixth Dutton surprised the crowd by bunting out a two-bagger after he had two strikes him. It didn't do any good, though.

In the first of the eighth McGraw got a single and then Andrew came in handily with another long drive over the fence, scoring McGraw and placing himself on second. Warren, the next man up, singled, scoring Andrew. Tuttle singled, advancing Warren. Tuttle stole second. Krupp got a two-bagger, scoring Tuttle and Warren. Burlington then had five points to Goddard's three. Booth was put in the box in the middle of this inning and succeeded in striking out the next men up, so that no more scores came from Goddard's seat among the stars.
